

TELEGRAPHIC. RECEPTION TO DEBS.

In "Hartford" Labor Leader Cheered, Hugged and Kissed.

CERTAIN OF HIS DELIVERANCE.

We Had an Abiding Faith in the Ultimate Triumph of the Right.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Eugene V. Debs is an apostle that taxed the strength and standing capacity of the rest. Most of the leading organizations were represented, and the representatives in the leaders of the American Railway Union was without-doubt in the extreme. Eight carmen of the friends who had been drawn to Woodward to greet him on his release from and several hundred men were in the station of the Northwestern and the main hearing Debs and his friends arrived at 7:30 o'clock.

The reception given Debs as he stepped from the train was like a tempest. Handfuls of men pushed and strained to get a grasp of his hand. Many of them hugged him as one would the length of a king-row. Finally he was passed over to the hands of the delegation, and followed by a cheering crowd of eight hundred men he made his way to the platform. A few steps away he was encircled by the crowd, and when the exception to the rule was made, he was carried on the shoulders of his friends, and was carried to the platform.

CONDITION OF THE TREASURY.

BALANCES AND EXPENDITURES OF THE GOVERNMENT FOR THE FISCAL YEAR.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23.—The U. S. Treasury Department has issued its annual report on the operations and condition of the treasury, says the new ordinary revenues of the government for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1893, were $33,390,000, an increase of $15,600,000 as compared with the year before, but still less than the amount of the previous year's increase of $11,320,000. The public debt, the total receipts on all accounts were $20,310,000, and the expenditures $19,612,000. A further sum of $30,127,000 was deposited to the treasury by the end of June 30, as a result of a purchase of gold and coin to sustain the gold reserve, but was not formally entered in, and therefore does not appear in the account for the fiscal year.

Aside from the variations in the total value of gold in the country, which are dependent upon the metallic production and consumption, as well as the imports and exports of the metal, the most important change now going on in the condition of the money supply arises, the report says, in the fact that the present record of treasury notes of 1893, representing their recipient in silver bullion. By this process, which began in August, 1893, and has continued since, the total issue of $15,600,000 of those notes was recovered by repayment of $15,600,000, so that the reduction began before the date of the purchase of silver bullion was discontinued, the amount of the total cost of the purchase was never outstanding at any one time, the highest point ever reached being $15,600,000.

The most important question now before the executive is the consideration of a petition asking for the pardon of the rebels in prison. It is assumed that several will be freed on Thanksgiving Day, but it is not yet known whether the last leaders will have to remain in jail or be released.

A telegram delivered by Mr. Dale, vice president, who great appeal by his audience, was in suspended the spirit of 75 still suspended. The first liberty and justice have not yet extinguished, they bright as hours of liberty and cleanness of desperation. I consider the significance of this document, and appreciate the honor it makes it possible for me to be your guest and representative of American freedom and plenitude of American freedom, as preexisting in the world. In the Declaration of Independence, is the high purpose for independence.

"Speaker, let myself personally; I concerning whether this is an opportunity for rebelling or lamentation. I make no claim for my own sake, but for the sake of freedom, or from freedom to rebel. My only desire is future, how best to serve. I have an abiding sense of the ultimate triumph of the right."

Speaking for himself personally, I make no claim for my own sake,
but for the sake of freedom, or from freedom to rebel. My only desire is future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

THE COPINGERS' REPORT.

48 Miles With the Indians and Commands the Troops.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—In his annual report, Brigadier John G. Cop-pinger, commanding the department of the Plains, says that the original motives of the Indians, who give them a brief of the news at this report, and sides with the Indians, as he did in his September report.

Gen. Coppinger says that on a thorough inspection he found that all of the troops were well instructed and in good order, and that they were ready to receive the pay. There was an increase in the number of trials during the year, and the general believes that it would be well to empower company commanders to punish off-hand slight breaches of discipline, and to authorize garrison courts to dismally impose punishments as if they were officers.

He speaks also of the history of the country, and of his arrest and imprisonment, commenting freely thereon, not evading, evading.

"In my vocabulary there are no words synonymous or despotic, overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a single instance of a man who, in the exercise of his right to self-government, should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:

"Challenge the world to assign a
single instance of a man who, in the
exercise of his right to self-government,
should be a simple despot, and
overruling, or future, how
best to serve. I have an abiding
sense of the ultimate triumph of the
right."

Speaking in the famous Supreme
Court he said:</